January 31, 2026: On Tonight's Movie - Let's Be Cops

I told you that they make movies about my life. Here's another telling piece of artistic magic.

Let's Be Cops: Josie, an aspiring makeup artist, helps disguise Justin as Pupa to infiltrate Mossi's club, where Justin is forced to smoke crystal meth and fight in a bare-knuckle boxing match. He and Ryan discover the crates contain guns stolen from police evidence and SWAT equipment and weapons, along with a secret tunnel between Mossi's club and Georgie's restaurant. Damon Wayans Jr. as Justin G. Miller

Once I began investigating, I found the truth, right? That dirty cops are using dirty methods and dirty people to move a ton of dirty weapons (of war). How about that secret tunnel between Moss-i's 'club' and George - what's that about?

Uphold the principles of our society's rule of law and end this practice of dirty double-dealing now before it's too late!
